ABIT GROUP OF INSTITUTIONS

A CENTRE FOR TECHNICAL EXCELLENCE

From the desk of head governing board

Head governing Last year has been a year of high activity, new initiatives, and excellent result for the ABIT group. The academic team is working with great strength and renewed activities. There have been significant breakthroughs in R&D as well as major developments in skill development areas. Student activities have been highly energetic. Corporate relationships are smooth and student placements have been excellent. I am confident; the current year will be a highly successful one for everyone in the ABIT family. I think all staff and students of ABIT for their activity involvement and wish that we all progress even further with noble and creative initiatives. Wish everyone a very successful year.

From the desk of Director- Placement and New Initiatives

We all recognize the significance of maintaining and prioritising our objectives to enhance efficiency and productivity. It is a delight to learn that the engineering wing of the ABIT Trust is releasing another instalment of our annual newsletter, 'Prajwalan.' I'm confident you'll find this edition of 'Prajwalan' enlightening, as it delves into effective time management.

Educational institutions play a crucial role in igniting minds and fostering knowledge. Each year, the editorial team selects a concept to inspire learning and wisdom.

I extend my congratulations to the dedicated editorial team for producing this issue. Their efforts in putting it together are commendable, and I'm certain you'll derive as much enjoyment from reading it as they did in creating it.

Wishing everyone a joyous new year!
